

STINGER SPORTS

STINGER WOMEN'S SOCCER

The Stingers finished their soccer season losing 1-0 to the McGill Martlets Sunday November 1st in a Q.U.A.A. semi final match.

McGill now faces Sherbrooke in the Q.U.A.A. championship. The winner will advance to the Canadian Intercollegiate Athletic Union Championships being hosted November 14 and 15 at Concordia and McGill (See enclosure for CIAU tournament details).

STINGER WOMEN'S HOCKEY

Concordia Women's Hockey team extend their record in league play to 2 wins and no losses by beating McGill in a resounding 13-2 victory.

Coach Les Lawton said he was pleased overall. "It was a good team effort. Most of our goals were well fought and executed".

Leading the way for the Stingers were Natalie Hains with 3 goals and 2 assists and Debbie Gill with 2 goals and 3 assists.

Next action for the team will be at the York University Tournament in Toronto on November 6, 7 and 8.

STINGER WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

The basketball team split their weekend action losing Friday night 63-61 to the Dalhousie University Tigers and winning Saturday afternoon 79-39 to the Brandon University Bobcats.

Suzi Czelnai led the Stingers this weekend netting a total of 41 points. The Stingers record in non-conference play now stands at 2 wins and 2 losses.

Next action for the team is on the road in Ottawa at the Carleton University Tournament November 6, 7 and 8.
